

NATIVE HAWAIIAN PEACEMAKING CONCEPTS

Beadie Dawson, Esq. ~ Of Counsel, Settle Meyer Law

A Video Presentation approved for CLE Credits

Approved by the Hawai'i State Board of Continuing Legal Education for the following CLE credits:

One (1) CLE credit hour; and

One (1) Ethics credit hour.

No charge.

A special invitation to the Judiciary History Center Theater In addition to learning about the principles and practices of ho`oponopono/Native Hawaiian Peacemaking and the effective application of these concepts and practices in mediation, attendees will hear how Dawson draws upon her expertise in ho`oponopono and her mediation skills to solve the unsolvable.

Beadie Kanahale Dawson

Beadie Kanahale Dawson is a recognized haku and highly experienced mediator in Hawai'i and the continental U.S. Dawson has served as a trainer of ho`oponopono for the Native Dispute Resolution Network of the U.S. Institute of Environmental Conflict Resolution. Law is her field of expertise, and her passion lies in helping others through a deep sense of kuleana. In 2017, Dawson was honored by the Honpa Hongwanji Mission as a Living Treasure of Hawai'i.

May 1, 2018, Tuesday

Check in: 11:30 to 11:45 a.m.

Program: Noon to 2:15 p.m.

The Judiciary History Center Theater
Hawai'i Supreme Court
Ali`iolani Hale, 1st Floor
417 South King Street
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813

RSVP by Monday, April 16: CADR@courts.Hawaii.gov or call 539-4237.

Attorneys: For CLE credit, please provide HSBA Bar No.

Co-sponsors: Hawai'i State Judiciary Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution; Native Hawaiian Bar Association; Hawai'i State Bar Association, ADR & Litigation Sections; The Association of Conflict Resolution - Hawai'i; and The Mediation Center of the Pacific, Inc.

To request disability-related accommodations, or obtain directions, please call the Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution at 539-4237.

The Hawai'i State Judiciary does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by the speaker. Nor do the speaker's remarks necessarily reflect the opinions of the Judiciary.