Benefits of Being a ACRH Member

ACR-Hawaii brings together people from all sectors in Hawaii with the common goal of building peace in our communities. ACRH builds connections and supports initiatives focused on peaceful processes and effective solutions to social problems. ACRH also educates its members and the public about alternative dispute resolution practices and skills.

Connect and Learn:

Meet other individuals interested in peace-building at annual ACR meetings and regular ACRH mixers and workshops. Stay up to date on ADR events and projects in the state. Learn techniques, skills, and current best practices from invited speakers and ACRH-sponsored workshops.

Develop and Engage:

Build your projects and businesses with the help of other ACRH members. Elicit support for initiatives you are invested in from a recognized organization. Engage with your community on ACRH outreach projects.

Celebrate and Support:

Celebrate Conflict Resolution Day in partnership with the State government and the Richardson School of Law. Support new peace-builders with mentorship and events, like the annual Peer Mediation Conference.
